History of Bihac Today

If you look for active vacation, Bihac can offer you the most. For this kind of tourism, Bihac and Una river are unique challenge. The ambience of water, air and mountain heights can fulfill all tourists' wishes. River Una offers you unforgettable rafting or kayak descent down the rapids. The bravest can try speed river and cave diving on unbelievable locations and meet very rare cave organisms. If you like fishing, rivers Una and Klokot are real paradise with rich and diverse fish reserves, and real challenge for sport fishermen. Forest surroundings are propitious for hunting with a lot of wild game such as boar, fox, brown bear, deer, pheasant and grouse. Panoramic flight with airplane or glider adds new dimension to the unique experience.

The area was settled from at least Illyrian and Roman times, but the town itself was first mentioned in 1260, in a document of King Bela IV.

Bihac is located in Northwest part of Bosnia and Herzegovina, on the border with Croatia. It is administrative, educational and cultural centre of Una-Sana Canton. Area of Municipality covers 900 square kilometers with population of 60.810.
